

CAMP DAVID INVITES YOU TO A HALLOWEEN PARTY

The Halloween weekend is almost here, and the Halloween committee of Gary, John, Walt, and Jeff have done some planning.

We will start with a Friday night hors d'oeuvre party starting at 6:00 p.m. at the Rec Hall. Bring your favorite snack, finger sandwiches, or dessert to share with everyone and don't forget your favorite beverage to get in the Halloween mood.

Saturday morning at 11 a.m., before the costume event, we will have a pumpkin decoration contest. Come on all you Martha Stewart wannabe's—let's give Gary some competition for a change. Get those decorating juices flowing—start now so that you can show us your pumpkins. Prizes will be awarded.

The pumpkin contest will be followed by the usual Halloween Costume contest at 2 p.m. Let's give Walt and Gary some competition. No more balloon boobs or Miss Piggy things, you two. It will start at 2:00 p.m. and we will have some great prizes. If the No. 1 winner is a day tripper he will receive a 30 day pass as his prize. If the winner is an overnigher, he will receive a free night in Sam's Trailer. If the winner is a permanent resident, he will receive a gift certificate. Second and Third Cash Prizes will be awarded.

The festivities will continue on with a Pot-luck dinner from 5-6:30 in the Rec Hall. Call Sam at the office for dishes needed for the dinner and followed by Bingo at 7 p.m. as usual, and with a full camp the jackpot should be up there.

Jeff is working on some games—a dildo (sort of like Apples) bobbing contest. His idea. Hopefully some other kinky takes on old Halloween standbys.

Sunday is reserved for some sun and playtime. See you then. The camp is almost fully reserved, so best to make your plans soon. If you have any further ideas, call Sam at the office.
